I was always insecure
I never was too sure
That what we did that night was right
Or very wrong
It was never in dispute
It was always understood
But I can't leave it there
Now what am I supposed to do about it
Rest your weary head with mine
I'll take you through the night
And bring you to the dawn in hope
But don't turn your head around
No matter what you see
You cannot return
You're caught by the magnet
Drawn to the light
Like a prisoner you are captured
You are left without a choice
Now it's all because of you
That I don't know what to do
My memory's confused when

I recall that night
Now the coin is in the air
And I don't know if I care too much
Which way it lands
And what am I supposed to do about it
Rest your weary head with mine
I'll take you through the night
And bring you to the dawn in hope
But don't turn your head around
No matter what you see
You cannot return
You're caught by the magnet
Drawn to the light
Like a prisoner you are captured
You are left without a choice
