Oh, standing on our own
We've witnessed a change
In the way we live our lives
And we abandoned everything

Everything

You only see what your heart will let you
You only see what your heart will let you, free your heart
Your soul condemned by hatred like a rusted knife
Impaled in our wounds

And we see in our hearts and in our dreams
And we see in our hearts and in our dreams
Take us back, take us back, when time was born
Take us back, take us back and there is so much more

And we have witnessed everything
What's in our hearts
And we have witnessed everything
What's in our hearts

What's in our hearts
Your soul condemned by hatred like a rusted knife
Impaled in our wounds

Standing on our own
We've witnessed a change
In the way we live our lives
And we abandoned everything

Everything

And we see in our hearts and in our dreams
And we see in our hearts and in our dreams
Take us back, take us back, when time was born
Take us back, take us back and there is so much more

And we have witnessed everything
What's in our hearts
And we have witnessed everything

What's in our hearts

You try to be something that you can't be
Free your heart
You try to be something that you can't be
Free your heart, your heart, free your heart

Free your heart
Free your heart
Free your heart
Free your heart
Free your heart

Standing on, standing on
On our own
Standing on, standing on
On our own

Free your heart
Free your heart
Free your heart
Free
