Blank words, supercede your thoughts
Blinding by the seams, standing silent

Blank words, supercede your thoughts
Blinding by the seams, standing silent

I watched the spawn of a broken day
It's ended with silence of a broken day
It's ended with silence in dying days
In dying days, in dying days, in dying days

Carry away the burden and you try, you try so hard
Carry away the burden and you try, you try so hard

You're next in line to watch it fall
You're next in line to watch it fall

Blank words, supercede your thoughts
Blinding by the seams, standing silent

Blank words, supercede your thoughts
Blinding by the seams, standing silent

I watched the spawn of a broken day
It's ended with silence of a broken day
It's ended with silence in dying days
In dying days, in dying days, in dying days

And we stand, stand upon the grave
And we stand, stand in dying days
And we stand, stand upon the grave
And we stand, stand in dying days

You're next in line to watch it fall
You're next in line to watch it fall

And I forgive you for showing that you don't even care
And I forgive you for never thinking that you were wrong

And I forgive you for showing that you don't even care
And I forgive you for never thinking that you were

wrong

Blank words, supercede your thoughts
Blinding by the seams, standing silent

Here comes the devil
