I wrote a letter saying that
That i'm never coming back
Now I can be here by myself
Without you and no one else
Your such a waste of time
But i'll be just fine

I saw a picture of you today
I can't believe how much you've change
So much time, too soon, too quick
Another reason for me drink
Buried in my shirt
What I can't see won't hurt

And I hope I never see you again
Not after, not after what you did and what you said
I bet you thought this story has a happy ending
And I hope I never see you again, never see you again!
