We are so serious about everything
Check out this ring
I got it from a child
Working on a landmine
Isn't that crazy
Well you can, well you can take my mind
You can take my parasite

It's been a long way
You called it right

When the rain came we made a name
Broke up the game come to the place
Of press and killed the first child
Wasn't it us
Oh oh oh

Well I know what you feel
It's no surprise that we're unreal
The works done now see if you can
Really know what you feel

It's no surprise that we're unreal
The works been done now see if you can

This is what they wrote about me
They know me well
A pile of words in permanent thoughts
From the future

Can I turn my back again
On stacks of thoughts we call a friend

Congratulations you're unreal

In the basket of experience
The works done now see if you can
Really know what you feel

It's no surprise that we're unreal
The works been done now see if you can
