You took your steps
Away from me
So keep your distances
If you leave
I'm stuck inside a moment
With a suitcase of dusty dreams

The train starts leaving
With you inside
I close these blue eyes
And keep them tight
You swore to me forever
But forever was just a lie

I won't end up cryin' like I can't move on
But I can't pretend that you're better off gone
If it kills me now
It can't kill me when I'm over you, angel

Jaded, faded
What lies in fireflies
Two heart tangled in goodbyes
But I'll be waiting
And I'll be fine
You're somewhere out there
Somewhere out there

If you never loved me
Then I don't need to know
And if you give your heart up
Make sure you take is slow

So if you're gonna leave me
Then pack your things and go

I won't end up cryin' like I can't move on
But I can't pretend that you're better off gone
If it kills me now
It can't kill me when I'm over you,

Jaded, faded

What lies in fireflies
Two heart tangled in goodbyes
But I'll be waiting
And I'll be fine
You're somewhere out there
Somewhere out there

And I know
That I'm never gonna feel the way I felt again
When I met you, putting pretty pictures on your skin
I can't deny
That I wish this all was something more
I wish this all was something more than this

Jaded, faded
What lies in fireflies
But I'll be waiting
And I'll be fine

Somewhere out there
Somewhere out there
Somewhere out there
