A line is drawn up in the sand
Is this the way to no where land
You've never seen the sky like this
You never want die like this

Comets falling for the earth
Is this the end or a rebirth
You never seen the sky like this
You never want die like this

Mother are we flying through the
Universe?
Are we dying through the universe?

Fire burning on the sun
Is killing almost everyone
You never seen the sky like this
You never want die like this

Dancing in the acid rain that's Falling on
Me streets of shame,
You never seen the sky like this
You never want die like this

Mother are we flying through the
Universe?
Are we dying through the universe?

We are crying to you

Mother are we flying through the
Universe?
Are we dying through the universe?

Mother are we flying through the Universe?
Are we dying through the universe?

We are crying to you

Mother are we flying through the

Universe?
Are we dying in the universe?

Comets falling for the earth
Is this the end or a rebirth
You never seen the sky like this
You never want die like this
