We're in a room full of people and you're talking to yourself again til you find your closest friend the door let's take a walk out into the sun you say why the clouds will come just like all the other times before and how can you survive on cigarettes and goodbyes does it satisfy baby ?

*Don't go off and hide so scared of what the world will find I can help you if you need it you may not care for love you made it clear your mind's made up but I can make your heart believe it

It will take your breath away just try it you'll be amazed it'll bring life to the dead you just know without any proof it turns lies into truth it's the best medicine you can get so won't you take my hand before you slip back there and get nowhere baby ?

*Don't go off and hide
so scared of what the world will find

I make your heart believe it...
I can't watch you drown, drown sink to the bottom like a stone so unaware you're even going down, down you do it so naturally

*Don't go off and hide
I can help you if you need it
but I can make your heart believe it I can make your heart believe it

Let's take a walk out into the sun
I know the clouds will come but not like before
