We're trying hard not to flee
To be the best that I can be The guilt she wears me like a skin
Wear strangers clothes
I tried to hide a portrait of my fallen pride Keep you out and my feelings in And loneliness belongs to me
And being blind is how I see How I wish you could see this too

I love my life
But I loved it more when you were standing right by my side
I can't take much more tonight

And I am always running scared
With things you said I never heard Somehow while I looked down below
You showed me faith and held my hand
This I couldn't understand
Had to force you out and make you go

I love my life
but I loved it more when you were standing right by my
I can't take much more tonight

I love my life
Everything that I did was so wrong but it felt so right in the drawing of the night

I love my life
but I loved it more when you were standing right by my
I can't take much more

I love my life
Everything that I did was so wrong but it felt so right
in the drawing of the night

Hush now baby don't you cry

You're still the only reason why I dream the dream of love my life again
