Come ride along, up front in my car,
come see the world as it's passing quickly.
Gaze into a scene thats moving.
Floating by, and then gone forever!

You never wanted to stay at home,
and I didn't blame you,
when you had to go!

Trace the lines, that now lie broken.
Face the past, don't be denied.
See if time can be your healer,
separate to join once more!

You never wanted to stay at home,
and I didn't blame you,
when you had to go!
Cause through the hard times,
The only one I had,
The only one I had,
The only one I....

You see broken homes,
I see friends I know.
You dont believe,
and I have faith.
You hear bigotry,
I hear songs that free,
they lift you up and let you go.

Come ride,come ride!
Come ride,come ride!

Yeah come ride,come ride!
Come ride,come ride!
