Time can paint a picture
As your memory fades away
You always spell trouble
As I forget what I meant to say

And it's so easy, when you want it
You just reach out and grab it
Just when it's over
You still can't break the habit
Why must you keep running
Running never brings you home

Switch baby switch baby
You can't seem to make up your mind
Switch baby switch baby
Thought that we were two of a kind

Innocent and childlike
Angelic the smile on your face
But barren is your wasteland
Gimme help, get me out of this place

And it's so easy, when you want it
You just reach out and grab it
Just when it's over

You still can't break the habit
Why must you keep running
Running never brings you home

Switch baby switch baby
You can't seem to make up your mind
Switch baby switch baby
Thought that we were two of a kind

Switch baby switch baby
You can't seem to make up your mind
Switch baby switch baby
Thought that we were two of a kind

Switch baby switch baby

You can't seem to make up your mind
Switch baby switch baby
Thought that we were two of a kind

Switch baby switch baby Switch switch
Switch baby switch baby Switch switch

Switch baby switch baby
Thought that we were two of a kind
