I was always looking, searching for something
Found it in you, found out it's true
Yeah I was always hoping, wishing for something
Could it be you, could it be true

You're just amazing
All that you seem
Larger than life
Right out of a dream
You're just amazing
Too good to be true
I stand in wonder of everything that you do

You say you were waiting, holding back something
Kept it in you, kept it in you
You say you were thinking, that there was nothing
Out there for you, out there that's true

You're just amazing
All that you seem
Larger than life
Right out of a dream
You're just amazing
Too good to be true
I stand in wonder of everything that you do

When you stop searching
Yeah that's when you'll find
When you least expect it
That's when you'll find

You're just amazing
All that you seem
Larger than life
Right out of a dream
You're just amazing
Too good to be true
I stand in wonder of everything that you do

You're just amazing
All that you seem

Larger than life
Right out of a dream
You're just amazing
Too good to be true
I stand in wonder of everything that you do

You're just amazing
All that you seem
Larger than life
Right out of a dream
You're just amazing
Too good to be true
I stand in wonder of everything that you do

You're just amazing
All that you seem
Larger than life
Right out of a dream
You're just amazing
Too good to be true
I stand in wonder of everything that you do
I stand in wonder of everything that you do
