All my life
Forgetting myself again
And knowing that when you went
You took half of me
Seventeen
And worried about who's on top
And knowing that I'm not
I've got room to grow

But I know I know that things will get better
Yeah I know I know that we can go further
Yeah I know I know that things will get better
Cuz I know I know that we can go further then

Such is life
Remembering me again
And knowing that when you went
It wasn't the same
Seventeen
And worried about who I'm not
And when I found out I'm not
I just had to go

But I know I know that things will get better
Yeah I know I know that we can go further
Yeah I know I know that things will get better
Cuz I know I know that we can go further then

Well, don't say you'll love me if you won't,
You know that you'd be lying to yourself then
My heart just feels so happy
When you tell me I'm your world
Excuse me if I'm sappy but I'm a girl

And I know I know that things will get better
Yeah I know I know that we can go further
Yeah I know I know that things will get better
Cuz I know I know that we can go further

Yeah I know I know that things will get better
Yeah I know I know that we can go further

Yeah I know I know that things will get better
Cuz I know I know that we can go further then

We can go further then
We can go further then
