Just when I thought
That I knew it all
You come along
And from stars you fall
Well you caught me off guard
But who would have guessed
I wasn't looking
For love like the rest
On top of the world
Well that's where I sit
Won't try to reason
'Cause it's too late for it
So I hope you're like this
'Cause me, I'm done for
One single kiss
And we've opened the door
In Love, Intoxicated
In Love, Intoxicated

Been only a week
You know this feels so right
Can't wait to see you
Later tonight
While over a drink
You know, drunk on a vibe
Your kind of magic
Well it leaves me so high

In Love, Intoxicated
In Love, Intoxicated
(You swept me off my feet)

In Love, Intoxicated
In Love, Intoxicated
In Love, Intoxicated
In Love, Intoxicated
