If you push me away I might just go with it
Maybe I won't try to stay and relive it, over again
Over again

We can't, we can't go on this way
Tug of war, it's a game we shouldn't play
Feelings come from every corner
Feelings, they come from just one place

If you push me away I might just go with it
Maybe I won't try to stay and relive it, over again
Over again
If you push me away you might just regret it
Maybe I won't try to stay and forget it, over again
Over again

We have, we have so much to say
So silent treatment is a game we shouldn't play
Love comes, comes from every corner
When love comes, comes from just one place

If you push me away I might just go with it
Maybe I won't try to stay and relive it, over again
Over again
If you push me away you might just regret it
Maybe I won't try to stay and forget it, over again
Over again

A madrugada ja chegou
E com ela vem o sol
Um novo dia comeÃ§ou
SerÃi que eu vou gostar

If you push me away I might just go with it
Maybe I won't try to stay and relive it, over again
Over again
If you push me away you might just regret it
Maybe I won't try to stay and forget it, over again
Over again

If you push me away I might just go with it

Maybe I won't try to stay and relive it, over again
Over again
If you push me away you might just regret it
Maybe I won't try to stay and forget it, over again
