

Scenario Fever "In Direction"

It took all a very long time
To tell what is real and what is fake in my mind
It was so hard to respect the truth, to discover your lies No its time to feel my revenge – its too late to apologize

Now – here we are in direction
Against a bloody horizon
Now here we are and it doesn't
Exists a bit of least resistance

It tried to make sence of this mass where I am in you could not save me in this time

I'm falling.

Now – here we are in direction
Against a bloody horizon
Now here we are and it doesn't
Exists a bit of least resistance

You enjoyed it when I was low
You denied me when I got strong
But now the time's right to show you who I am I stopped this nightmare – my private war!
