This time I miss the strength, can't hardly move.
The road ahead is lined with broken dreams.
I failed to give you everythingÂ...

Â...that we need to survive Â- to hell with love - white doves are just a lie!

Signs bring up misery, don't even dare to breath!
Am I all alone?
Time brought me to a point, where I have never been
Now I can't survive Â- my tangled state of mind.
Now, I'd look back on the beginning of this harm.
To remember the plans that we have made
Coz our dreams they seem to fade away
In space and time Â- there's a tube at the end of the light

Signs bring up misery, don't even dare to breath!
Am I all alone?
Time brought me to a point, where I have never been
Now I can't survive Â- my tangled state of mind.
