I take it easy all the time
Ever since I realized
Life is little more
Than rolling on the highway
I am not looking for
Changes in the mandate
And when I get a bruise
I fix it with a band aid
Happy with my part
I am telling you daily
Tell me will it start
Ringing some bells
I will carry on
Just how I like it
I will not become

Somebody else
Somebody else
Traffic may be slow
But I'm not trying
Changing lanes at all
Having a spell
Flash your light away
Turn on the siren
I will not become
Somebody else
Somebody else
I take it easy all the time...
Somebody else
Try to hang it on
Somebody else
Leading in the damn race
