We love you
Always gonna be there
We love you
Problem is do you care

You make us scream aloud in ecstasy
Feel alive
Long ago you got used to the fact
That we love you
And gonna be loving you
With your vanities
And your mean streaks

We love you

So you better be there
We love you
Leaping into the air

You bleed and sweat and spit for victory
On Friday night
No pretty picture anyway
We love you
And we gonna love you when you skip
For another team
We'll love you
