Whoa! Whats soulja slim

(soulja Slim)

Reality

something you can't run from

(Master P)

They ain't never been threw this real shit

Its real out here

Magnolia, Calliope, Melphaen

[Chorus - repeat 2X]

You ain't never seen what I done seen or been threw what I been threw, thats why I got a fuck up mental and you ask why I don't rap positive

I been a convicted violent felon threw the years with blood sweat and tears

[Soulja Slim]

Project living, dirt diving ???? thats how I came up ever since I was a juve plotting on ways to be famous you should be rap artist, be a born killer or dope dealer

I look up to all the hard hitters that use to slang on Six and Wheeler

back in the early 80's ???????? had shop on Wheeler street

mama send me to the store sit on the porch watching hustlers that creep saying to myself thats how I wanna be living my life in the fast lane

getting big time in the dope game pushing herion getting coke caine thats every young nigga dream that grew up in the bricks

young niggas kill for the cream, cut thoarts and totting clips

mama was a fiend she like to fiend for them rocks sucking dicks

never ever had a Pa he's an Angolia convict my role models is soldiers on the porch with the torch ready to blast pop some in his ass and put it in the corps

[Chorus]

[Soulja Slim]

Shit gets scary when all the lights go out in the projects you know who might keep in yo door and leave on the floor with a slit neck or you saw crack from a broke tek only shot three times and got jam (Gunshots) think I wished it happened goddamn!
I just seen bout five minutes ago going up the steps asking me to blow thinking its the hoe from Ali show but she not dead doe hoes play cut throat two on the De-Lo, don't trust them be careful how you fuck em cause you hook yourself and start to love em stay above them
don't fall weak they got some niggas to die for the cheeks, superfreaks thats if a nigga M.O.B but anyway peep my real shit in a situation like that the nigga people thinkin the hoe double cross em
and the killers ain't doing shit to the fact
?????? and the dope dealers killing everything in the house me myself I wonder why the hoe is still living why the killers ain't take her out I think it was a set up that bitch need to be wet up nigga gave her a dome shot and blowed that bitch up in her Beretta
(Explosion)

[Chorus] - 2x
