I wish I could scream all over the seas
I live in a town where I can't be free

We've covered the ground
With asphalt and concrete
There's no place to stand
In the city of love

Everything seems to be absurd
Everyone seems to be unreal

I look into your eyes

I cannot believe
You're so full of fear
But you're looking so strong

Everything seems to be absurd
Everyone seems to be unreal

In the city of love

There's no place to stand
In the city of love
