"Odd"

Can you hear me I'm still breeding
In the silence of my being
Can you hold me
Can you show me
Can you find me a place
To call it home

It's too odd
On and on

Can you find me
Can you hide me
There is something crawling on me
There is nothing
There is something
And my head is going to explode

It's too odd
On and on

Where's your mother
Where's your father
Where's your brother
Where's your lover
There is something
There is nothing
And my head is going to explode

It's too odd
On and on

And it's suicide
