It started out
All in good fun
Till I found out
I wasn't the one

Now I'm picking up
Anything I can find
Sort it out
Till I learn what's mine

I need a push
Would you show me the way
I need a hand
Would you steady the weight
Just a friendly face
A little smile, a little grace
I need a push

You think you got it all
You got it made
But nothing is a sure thing
When those feelings fade

When you're left with nought
Not a ruin remains
You gotta walk on
Cause you know you can't stay

Take it day by day, I need a
Just one small act of faith
Would you show me the way
