Gather around me,
I need some time to recollect these thoughts of mine You're so kind to stand behind me, help me face these fears I've built over the years It's so clear you're always here (I wouldn't leave you here like this) and I'm desperate, oh so desperate to feel alive (you need someone to help you, please let me guide you through this) you're so kind to offer assistance in my interest, I could've never made it through tonight It's so right cause we saw this coming through and I'm still here, keep me here I believe finding faith you must agree upon a state of action keep me posted, still in action

I keep you here cause I believe finding faith is what I need to take the chances I must take before my heart begins to break

I know you have it hard sometimes, don't let the bad things rule your life Sit back and watch your life take flight, you're just so young you have the time the time just leave it alone x2
keep me here I believe
finding faith you must agree upon a state of action
keep me posted, still in action

I'll keep you here cause I believe finding faith is what I need to take the chances I must take
before my heart begins to break
before my heart begins to break

Thanks for being here my friend, here with me til the very end of time We're gonna do this one together x2

Thanks for being here my friend, we're gonna do this one together
Thanks for being here my friend,
keep me here I believe
keep me posted, still in action.
