Don't tell me not to worry about this
It's hard I know but I must insist
That what we're looking at is just true love
But would you even notice if we touched?
And someone better catch me off guard
Before I get to caught up in this
And someone better catch me off guard
Before I lose myself for losing you

Everybody wants to know if we got so lost then
How'd we end up here with you

It's so much harder now than it was before
When every word you say has got me floored
And I know I don't stand a chance in here
Cause I can barely stand without you near
And someone better catch me off guard
Before I get to caught up in this
And someone better catch me off guard
Before I lose myself for losing you

Everybody wants to know if we got so lost then
How'd we end up here with you
