"Train"

A foreign land gone - on my way
A dark track moving - I won't stay
There's something inside crying in the brain
Crying for a shelter - crying insane

Say say say that you don't care
Trying to deceive me if you dare
I'm into something deeper now
Listen close - listen close

Look in my eyes - look into the dark sky
Another one goes and another one dies
I could never live if I told you I stay
We could change our ways or be strangers on the same
Train

Living on a promise - living on a lie
Lying in my bed like a stranger inside
I can go where noone goes
Into the dark - into something unknown

Stare in silence on the ruins of me
Coming out pain - violently
Let it come - let it be done
One more kiss and then the train is gone

Look in my eyes - look into the dark sky
Another one goes and another one dies
I could never live if I told you I stay
We could change our ways or be strangers on the
same
Train
