"Blackened Water"

The sea is full of blackened death.
The sea is full of blacked suicide.
The sea is full of blackened water.
Traped by the fate of lie.
Never thought I would live to see the light of day.
I will face fate and meet it in the blackness of the deep...
Fly through the water, fly through the deep, fly through the blackness of eternity.
.solo.
Death flys in a pit of blackness, it flys into your soul and rips out your guts.
Death flys into the blackened water.
Blackened.
Water.
Blackened.
Water.
