Damnation!
We are a diagonal dividing humanity
On scum and carrion.
War like a poison in a blood of visionaires
On so many plains
War like an absolute reflex
Which forces us to effect
No one will survive...

Sitting in a dark chamber of human bones
Mausoleum of timev
Flowers and decay
Want you taste the pain?
Want you taste the suffering?
Dead Cold Emptiness
Now
A warm Soul in liquid dimension

My spirit, hover above a clear glass of LifeFlame...

By the breath of my Soul
I've been warming a silhouette of cadaver
Drowsed in embrace of the night...
