Your eyes staring into my eyes,
Who am I but a guy with two eyes on the prize',

And the prize in my eyes is 10 times,
The surprise in your eyes as I kiss you goodnight.

Your smile is the fire that rocks my soul
Gonna remember it until I grow old,
'Cause life is too short we gotta do things right,
So baby let's just partyÃ toni-ight
Baby let's just partyÃ toni-ight.

We've come out on top, We're in front of the line,
We're here to rock out and have a good time,
'Cause the past is the past and the future is bright,

So baby let's just partyÃ toni-ight,
Baby let's just partyÃ toni-ight.
