I'm dancing with my loneliness again

I'm dancing with my loneliness again
Slowly to the music from within
I'm dancing with my loneliness again
Feeling it can be my only friend

And I won't let myself go, it's too near
Too near to hear, near to hear, to hear

I'm dancing with my loneliness inside
Knowing there's no place where I can hide
I'm dancing with my loneliness inside
There's no other place for me to hide

And I won't let myself go out and cry
I wonder why, wonder why

I'm dancing, I'm dancing, romancing
I'm just dancing
