I don't want you to give what you don't have Don't make a vow that you can't keep
I don't want you to change your positions
Don't hang around just to please me
But I have one request
And if you don't think it's senseless
Let me give you something else
Let me love you
Let me love you
Free of all rituals, nothing habitual
Something you can sink your teeth into
Let me love you
Let me love you
Free of where have you been
Freedom what's take command
Something you can fall right back into
My love for you
My love for you
We can go deep if you need to
I won't draw a line that runs against you
Don't hold back if you are afraid to
A sensual sin is what awaits you
But I have one request
And if you don't think it's senseless
Let me give you something else
Let me love you
Let me love you
Free of all rituals, nothing habitual
Something you can sink your teeth into
Let me love you
Let me love you
Free of where have you been
Freedom let's take command
Something you can fall right back into
My love for you
My love for you
Let me love you
