"Tired Of Being Alone"

Visit "Tired Of Being Alone" on MotoLyrics.com

Once , you dreamed of me Twice, you wished that i'd pull you out you chose your life , and put me down still you don't understand

Tired of being alone

what you have dreamed is not what i am so far
let me be the one please understand me
how i am
but i don't want , to walk alone
I need your hands to warm my soul
Tired of being alone
Tired of being alone

I will do my best to become your love I'll try to fill the emptyness
in our hearts
oh so tired of being alone

Tired of being alone
I want to feel , I need to fall in love with you Tired of being alone
