

Morning Call

"Break The Glass"

I have questions to be answered, answers to be questioned, with lessons to be learned.

You need issues to be lost, losses to be issued
never to return,

They said, im better off without you, better off with anyone, anyone but you.

This wont begin without endings..

Break the glass,
incase of emergency,
see right past,
all ive made for you to see

I have reason to believe your reasons unbelievable, read throught your eyes

You need this song to remind you of wrong you did behind me handfed by your lies.

Second guessing everything she ever told me about this lying face down introducing myself with tomorrow.
