Listen, can't you hear your crying heart?
My friend, oh I can see you're torn apart I look to you thinking of you tonight Old ghosts, haunt you and they won't let go They know, the city can take time to grow What's done is done but you are still young, Berlin Tell me, what will be your final role?
It seems either side would sell your soul It's such a high cost when dreams get lost in Berlin, city of night, you sleep between the East and West,
broken, kept from the light you close your eyes and everything remains in black and white Berlin, when will you fight the mind that draws the border no one crosses in the city of night Strange times were to have thought make a whole You'll find some old wounds cannot be closed But I look to you, thinking of you oh Berlin, city of night, you sleep between the East and West,
you close your eyes and everything
remains in black and white
the mind that draws the border
no one crosses in the city of night today, in the world of freedom the proudest boast is "ich bin ein berliner" Berlin, city of night,
you sleep between the East and West,
you close your eyes and everything
remains in black and white Berlin, when will you fight
no one crosses in the city of Berlin, city of night,

you sleep between the East and West,
you close your eyes and everything
remains in black and white Berlin, when will you fight
the mind that draws the border
no one crosses in the city of night
