Three men are going down into the sepulchre
One of them lies by days into the coffin
He is reciting the prayers for the dead
Surrounded himself by the breeze of death
Wrapped in sudaria in a state pseudo-cadaverical

In front the grave circle drawing mixture burning
Tomb is opened, coffin uncover, sound of bell
Corpse wet with hot young blood

Expiation made before the consultation
Magician precept, officiator of the rite
Sacrifice, appearing the manes of the dead

Surrounded by candles, worshipping idols, receiving
