You're in the twilight zone
not the past or the future

Don't try to steal this Bert
it wouldn't suit ya!
To say a rhyme Moses P. has created is def
ain't it?
I'm glad I made it!
Clever
smart
really cold an' self-destructive if it gets stolen

So if you steal you know the deal

I'll eat you up like a buttercup meal!
Hold it
forget my last threat

I'm threatin' people that I haven't even met yet!
It's all because I am an aggressive are you a Bert?
Answer with "yes" if.
You're one of those who try to oppose
The leader for a reason that no human knows.
Pay attention
sit down on a bench
and follow me to another dimension:

On your own
on your own in the twilight zone

On your own
on your own in the twilight zone.

Raise the crown
the crown must be risen

Now you're locked by my rhyme like a killer in prison.
Captured in the twilight zone
way out unknown

but you're not alone.
There are many others waitin' on the man with the plan
to the land
beyond
Which is me
Moses
the lyrical leader.
Is there a girl with you? - I'd like to meet her.
The zone you are in is full of confusion

This rhyme you hear is just an illusion.
Articulation as well as my diction
rather than fact
it is fiction
In your mind
you wish you were dreamin'- You're not you're scared
now you're screamin'.
Calm down
my friend
relax
I'm only jokin'
it's just a piece of wax.

On your own
on your own in the twilight zone
...

You keep on hearin' this
you get curious

Quite mysterious
shall you take it serious?
The conclusion to your mental conflict:
You go further in the twilight district.
My rhyme has brought ya mind to a thought

You understand it
damn it
you're caught!
You realize it
a deadly mistake

it gets bigger every move that you make.
Inch by inch
foot by foot
now you know it
ya shouldn't have put Yourself in this position

tryin' to fulfill an impossible mission.
I'm like Schiller
sweet like vanilla

A chiller
a iller
a thriller
a killer!
Didn't listen
pay the cost
freezers frost loser
ya lost!

On your own
on your own in the twilight zone
...
This is the twilight zone!
