"Ashes In Her Eyes"

You try but can't disguise
The ashes in your eyes
And the war you wage with the world
Goes on without a cause
Into no
Into no
No future

Rings of smoke hover by your lips
And thru them I know are secrets
Into the spanish heat I bare
My weakness is your mouth
Into no
No future
Into no...

There are ashes in her eyes
Where a fire used to burn
There are ashes in her eyes
But no flame will burn

We were both clinging dearly
To inventions of our lust
Barely a breath left to speak
So we move in silence
Let the heat devour us

Into no
No future
Into no...

There are ashes in her eyes
Where a fire used to burn
There are ashes in her eyes
But no flame will burn
No flame will burn
