Hey baby, [Incomprehensible]
We all do what we got to do
Hey darling, I'm broken hearted
I've been crying but my crying is through

And I've learned a lot
I really learned a lot
Broken down on a bathroom floor

Yes, I've learned a lot
I really learned a lot
I hope you found what you are looking for

Spent a lot of time staring at the ceiling
Spent a lot of time talking to wall
Spent a lot of time chasing that old time feeling
Spent a lot of time waiting on your call

And I've learned a lot
I really learned a lot
Broken down on a bathroom floor

Yes, I've learned a lot
I really learned a lot
I hope you found what you are looking for

Oh and darling, the sun has been falling
Like the dust on some Midwestern plane
Oh and darling, instead of running
I think it might be time you sit down
And deal with the pain

Late at night I sit and listen to the freeway
Rolling like a river on a distant shore
Nobody told me that living was easy
I ain't living in fear anymore

And I've learned a lot
I really learned a lot
Broken down on my bathroom floor

Yes, I've learned a lot

I really learned a lot
I hope you found what you are looking for
Hope you found what you are looking for
