Morning, like a picture
Without a frame
Morning, like a smile
Without a name
Simple
So simple but yet
So true
Oh morning I know now
Why your sky is so blue

Oh the eye
I cannot see through
What the whole soul can see behind
There are some things so beautiful
But still undefined
Morning
Like a prophet without a word
Morning
Like a soldier without a sword
Oh now
It's funny how we see so much
But cannot feel a thing
Oh my sweet savior morning hear me say
Hear me say yeah yeah yeah

Morning.....
