

Mount Eerie

"How"

Visit "How" on MotoLyrics.com

Having washed my face in a frozen stream
And having lived in guest rooms for the last 7 years,
And having just doubled in size, admitting animal loving

I still Must Find a Way
How.

How do I live with the romance of the world?
How do I live with the romance: the lure of scenery?

How do I live with the romance of comfort and closed
Eyes?
How do I live with the romance?
And admit that this might be the world
Where I belong.

How?

I'll sing my song in a parking lot.
