Two long years
We made it through
Anguish and love
It was just me and you
As we sit here and talk
I can see through your eyes
The love that you had
Is gone to my surprise

And my tears won't lie
They're screaming your name
I could never show this pain
I hope you the best I never had
How could life ever get this bad

You feel no remorse
For words that were said
Seeing you with him
Is the only thing I dread
I want to feel your warmth
And feel your touch
Why am I so cold?
Why does this hurt this much?

Goodbye...
