(Blast off!)

[B-Real]

Come inside, hello everybody, welcome
Think you better be ready for the battle when the shit goes down
Cause we warring
All you fuckin yellow comets runnin from the front line
If anybody wanna get away hey
I'll find your fuckin ass in due time
Run and seek shelter but you never will escape Flippin over the gate, cause you can't wait to get your fuckin ass away But you're trapped, and there's no way out of this mushroom cloud
But you never wanna realize that I'm planted in your mind now
Cypress Hill compound, you could hear the sound Let another motherfucker run up and I'll put your ass down (down)
Then I'll peel from your cap the Cypress Hill star Quick look around, you can't hide
You just might die right where you are

Chorus: B-Real

AUDIO X...We gonna your blow your head up (up) Synthetic flows, they gonna make you get up
Give me any record and I'll flip it any style
Niggaz can't help it, cause they bumpin the shit loud

[Barron Ricks]

Aiyyo whasup kid, feel the rush, glad you kept in touch With these niggaz who be puffin on the Dutch Bustin guns, lay back in the cut
Can it be, it's just a dream when you're on your scene smokin the green
Cause ain't shit never what you think it seem
From the streets where life ain't cheap Cypress Hill, Soul Assassins, while you askin, "Who dat rappin?"

We get all up inside your grill, with the skill Shoot to kill when it's time for action
See you can't hide, from this homicide, that ain't no lie Better kiss that black ass goodbye when you try to play these wiseguys So who's complainin when we intensify the levels on the ryhme
You better get ready for the battle when the shit goes down
Because we are the wild

Chorus

[Barron Ricks]

"Audio terrorists
Mic specialists
About to blow this Blast off"

[B-Real]

Lookin in your eyes, I see your body bag figure Better be ready for the battle when the shit goes down
Cause it's on nigga
What you wanna do, you better pay close attention Let it be known, I control the zone beyond your comprehension
Blunt session, you feel the tension begin to rise Fuck and feed him, if they can't take a joke and get high
I'm feelin lye, in my lungs, what the deal bro?
So many people wanna hit my joint but they never got none
Imagine that bullshit, happens all the time
Niggaz better start growin they own
They cannot fuck with mine
Give me any record and I'll flip it any style Beginners better run back to the lab and practice for a while

Chorus

[Barron Ricks]

"This has been another AUDIO X explosive Blast off!"
