You take my love and leave me empty
And all you feel is a fist of draining sand
This wasted heart you take for granted is tired of Tell me what did you expect?

Why would stay?
Doomed to save me
I'm playing this game like this is love
The longer I stay, the more you leave me
I made the mistake to reach this life

This fever breaks I'm craving
You've made a bitter play
Out of fear you losing ground
The only thing that keeps you standing is gone away
Cause you've been found out

Why would stay?
Doomed to save me
I'm playing this game like this is love
The longer I stay, the more you leave me
I made the mistake to reach this life
