Over the eyes, which sky is cast?
Over your sight,
Locked in the past, what did you catch?
What did you catch?
Sit through the prices, divide the taking
Too good or bad
Wasting the daylight, again and again
Painting a memory

Over the eyes, which sky is cast?
Over your sight,
Locked in the past, what did you catch?
What did you catch?
Sit through the prices, divide the taking
Too good or bad
Wasting the daylight, again and again
Painting a memory
Painting a memory

Minutes don't wait, days don't delay
You're trapped in the fever,
Painting a memory, and when it fades
What will you have?
Sit through the prices, divide the taking
Too good or bad
Wasting the daylight, again and again
Painting a memory
Painting a memory

Minutes don't wait, days don't delay
You're trapped in the fever,
Painting a memory, and when it fades
Sit through the prices, divide the taking
Too good or bad
Wasting the daylight,
Painting a memory
Painting a memory.
