I've come to warn you, he's coming for you
He'll stick your weeping flesh to the ceiling
I've come to tell you how he'll deceive you Your face is melting, your heart is screaming.

Tell me, tell me all the filthy things I wanna hear
Tell me, tell me that we have never felt so hollow
Tell me, tell me all your poison thoughts, I'm listening Tell me, tell me that we will never see tomorrow...

Take this darkness, feel his sharpened teeth enter your
neck
Mutilate you, devastate you, you're not coming back.

We tried to warn them, they never listen, spiders
pouring from their eyes
This undead creature that you call "lover", pray you'll make it through the night.

Tell me, tell me all the pretty things I wanna hear
Tell me, tell me you'll rearrange me to your liking
Tell me, tell me your poison words are everything
Tell me, tell me how they devoured all your insides.

Take this darkness, feel his sharpened teeth enter your
neck
Mutilate you, devastate you, you're not coming back.

I saw you smiling as they sliced her open, cut me up boy, I'll be waiting...
So now you'll dance with me you vile children
We shall teach you devastation.

They will take you, mutilate you, devastate you, you'll come back no more...

Take this darkness, feel his sharpened teeth enter your
neck
Mutilate you, devastate you, you're not coming back.
