Jump aboard if you're ready to ride

Jungle Brother's in the house and we're by your side

I know you know how we do that there move your bodies at the side put ya hands in the air catch a booty move across the board coz you know this champagne can't be ignored and you can do what you wanna do don't worry about a thing it's just the rhythm and you

(woo)

So just move it there shake it a little and if you fizzle kind away just riddle ma nizzle get in the party don't stop the flow and don't think of nothing else till it's time to go

(yeah)

now baby girl don't be so shy because i got the whip cream for you cutie pie and if anything i was to save the day coz when we step up in the place we send your troubles away so be easy and relax yourself and just shake ya ass because it's good for your health

[Chorus]

Breathe - Don't Stop c'mon let's take it higher

Breathe - Don't Stop c'mon let's take it higher

Breathe - Don't Stop c'mon let's take it higher
