I said no..
I thought I told you this is not gonna work.
Just leave it alone.
Don't try to call me like there's nothing wrong.
I said no..
I thought I told you this is not gonna work.
Just leave it alone (leave it alone)
Just leave it alone (let it go)

'Cause bitch, I hate you.
I hate you, bitch I hate you.
I hate you, you should know,
I hate you, yes I do.
And I don't like you anymore
I don't like you anymore

3 o' clock in the AM,
why your phone dead, who you with, where you staying?
I am at a certain point in my life where I need time to do what I do best.
So if you don't mind.. I'll take a second to breathe.
All that stress piled up and I don't wear it on my sleeve
and you know this,
it took a lot of drama till you noticed,
and now you're stuck trying to put the blame on me.
I never had a problem with ending a relationship
until I met you, you crazy bitch.
Clogging up my phone
barricade in front of my home, the fuck out of here.
Shit, I don't want to see your face
it reminds me of a girl I knew and time wasted (wasted on you).
You don't get it, do you?
My eyes are wide open and I'm looking right through you.
Them lies and them crocodile tears
fell for that for too many years, yeah.
And now she starting again

like the world really needs another Marshall & Kim,
please.

I said no..

I thought I told you this is not gonna work.

Just leave it alone.

Don't try to call me like there's nothing wrong.

I said no..

I thought I told you this is not gonna work.

Just leave it alone (leave it alone)

Just leave it alone (let it go)

'Cause bitch, I hate you.

I hate you, bitch I hate you.

I hate you, you should know,

I hate you, yes I do.

And I don't like you anymore

I don't like you anymore
