It's a face I half remember
In a place I've half forgotten
Not a dream, it was real
We were there together
Suddenly everything's clear

Under the trees, we talked for hours
Under our feet, were tiny flowers
Life was so sweet we knew it all then
Did you forget - can we go back there?

The sky was often grey there
It didn't matter at all - we had love
But then the years all flew by
And now I know what we had then
I realise
Love is all
I knew it once before the fog has lifted from my mind and I know
Love is All
Life can be wonderful
At least it can be now and then
Not a dream dream dream dream
Not a dream dream dream dream
We were there together
Suddenly everything's clear
Life can be sweeter
Did you forget it
