"Not enough"

I say 'Good Morning'
You look for someone to blame
A new day is coming
You say a prayer for the rain
The only love that you give me
Is the bit you don't need
If you said that you need me
I could believe

Not Enough, It's not enough
Holding back
Not Enough , It's not enough
Holding on

A little revelation
Draws me further in
I offer you salvation
I offer you my sin
Damaged people are dangerous
Now I know about that
Sleeping eyes wide open
Only dreaming in black
Lay your head in
My longing arms
Not enough of you, Take a piece of me
Look behind you, nothing's there to see
