Everything I feel is on the brink again and I'm dislocated but so fascinated
I remember where we were before And that place in me is still so raw

And I Shiver, Shiver , Shiver again
I Shiver, Shiver, Shiver again

Everything is lost
I breathe you in again Dangerous reaction distraction
It's been done before the love gone bad
It was deeply good and deeply sad Feelings fly by thick and fast in re-runs of the past they're moving in again they should have stayed away Simple wisdom but the logic's just not getting through Find it so hard to exhale when I'm with you
